Falcon Announcements

Halloween - Tuesday October 31st

Halloween in America has become a yearly celebration involving costumes, haunted houses, trick-or-treating, and social gatherings. This year, Halloween falls on a school day and teachers have planned regular lessons and assignments maintaining full usage of instructional time. We ask that students leave the ghost, goblins, masks, face-paint, costumes, simulated weapons, etc. at home. Students will be expected to adhere to regular dress code and not interrupt the educational setting with humorous or scary distractions. T-shirts and attire that is Autumn or Halloween themed and is within dress code will be acceptable that day. We encourage students to wear Falcon Blue to support our CFHS Fall Sports as they finish up their seasons and enter into State Competitions - GO FALCONS!!!

Thank you to staff who continue to support our CFHS events: Steel Drum Concert- DeeAnn Perez, Twelfth Night- Deb Visbal, Football Game- Tammy McHugh, Terry Fortunato, Greg Bishop, Lance Robertson, Mike Winters, Alberto Martin-Adan, Alex Rodriguez, Christine Gabriel, Calvin Eleby; Tailgate - Trevor Riddle ; Falcon Community Club - Melody Bailey, Taylor Franks, Stephanie Roberts, Susan Whorley.

Congratulations to the CFHS Marching Band who was awarded a “Superior” rating at the University of Arizona Band Day that took place last Saturday, October 21st!

Falcon Athletics

- Congratulations to our girls golf team who won the Division II, Section I Championship.
- The girls golf team took 5th place at the Division II Girls Golf State Championships.
- Congratulations to Jacob Goode for taking 2nd place in Division II Boys State Championships.
- The football playoff bracket will be determined Saturday, October 28, at 10:00 am.
- Swim & Dive State Championships will be held November 3 & 4 at the Skyline Aquatic Center.
- Our boys and girls cross country teams will compete at States on Saturday, November 4, at the Cave Creek Golf Course in Phoenix.
- Good luck to all our athletes!
