Announcements & Thoughts:

Excerpts from Cultivating Curiosity in K-12 Classrooms

Curious People Exhibit Enhanced Cognitive Skills

"Curious students learn more and learn better. Current research show that people who nurture the tendency to seek new information and experiences show lasting brain effects.."

(Wendy L. Ostroff, ASCD pp. 5)

The SY 2016-2017 motto is #honest&kind: focusing on Respect, Honesty, Humility, Kindness, Resilience, Innovation, and Community. This school year promises to be a great year as we set high expectations for learning and for positive character.

Congratulations to Kirsten Fulgham on the publication of her thesis research in the Southwestern Naturalist! She received her MS in Natural Science from the University of Arizona. Besides holding down a full time job teaching, she spent many days and nights chasing around kangaroo rats on Las Cienegas.

Help with Grad Night party decorations: Grad Night Set Design/Decorations Meeting. October 5, 6:30 PM, House 4, Room 712.

In a shelter

In a motel or campground due to the lack of an alternative adequate accommodation

In a car, park, abandoned building, or bus or train station

Doubled up with other people due to loss of housing or economic hardship

Your school-age children may qualify for certain rights and protections under the federal McKinney-Vento Act.

Your eligible children have the right to:

- Receive a free, appropriate public education.
- Enroll in school immediately, even if lacking documents normally required for enrollment.
- Enroll in school and attend classes while the school gathers needed documents.
- Enroll in the local school; or continue attending their school of origin (the school they attended when permanently housed or the school in which they were last enrolled), if that is your preference and is feasible.
 - * If the school district believes that the school you select is not in the best interest of your children, then the district must provide you with a written explanation of its position and inform you of your right to appeal its decision.
- Receive transportation to and from the school of origin, if you request this.
- Receive educational services comparable to those provided to other students, according to your children's needs.
